Vacancy note: Graphic Designer/Video Editor

About the PES:

The Party of European Socialists (PES) brings together the Socialist, Social Democratic, Labour and Democratic parties from all over the European Union, UK, and Norway. Together with 32 full member parties and 13 associate and 12 observer parties. We fight for a better and more progressive Europe. Find out more at www.pes.eu.

The PES stands for democracy, freedom, equality, social justice, and sustainability. These values belong together and help build progress in all societies. We work for growth and quality jobs, human rights, strong social protection, fair taxation and against all discrimination. We are steering the transition to green economies making sure that no one is left behind.

About the role: Graphic Designer/Video Editor

We are looking for a proactive creative person who – together with the rest of the communications team – can take the PES' online channels to a new level.

The Graphic Designer/Video Editor will join the communications team on a full-time basis to support the PES' content production for its main website and campaign websites, as well as for all PES social media channels.

We are looking for a highly-skilled, creative person, who can produce top quality visuals, graphics, and edited video, using standard design and video editing tools – Adobe Illustrator, Photoshop, InDesign, Premiere, or similar – and who can generate fresh ideas, and deliver on specific communications requests. This role requires excellent ability to balance a busy workload and meet tight deadlines.

The creative work will predominantly reflect the current news cycle, mostly focused on the European institutions, which are at the core of PES' activity: European Commission, European Parliament, European Council, European Committee of the Regions. The biggest creative challenge for the position in the upcoming months would be the European Elections 2024.

The Graphic Designer/Video Editor will report directly to the Communications Director.
